

The mail carrier and the letter for grandma

June 12, 2026

Once upon a time, in a sunny little village, lived a cheerful mail carrier named Benny. Benny was a fluffy brown bunny with bright blue eyes and a bright red cap perched on his head. Every day, he hopped down the cobblestone path with a colorful bag filled with letters and parcels. Today was special because he had a letter for Grandma Lily!

"Where are you going, Benny?"

As Benny hopped along, he stopped to say hello to his friends. First, he met Ruby, the clever little squirrel with a bushy orange tail and sparkling green eyes. "Where are you going, Benny?" she asked, twitching her tiny nose. "I have a letter for Grandma Lily!" Benny replied, his ears twitching with excitement.

Ruby clapped her paws. "I'll come with you! Let's make it a fun adventure!" So, off they went together, Benny hopping and Ruby scurrying beside him.

They passed by a sunny meadow filled with colorful flowers, and Benny picked up a daisy for Grandma Lily. "She loves these!" he said with a big smile.

Finally, they reached Grandma Lily's cozy cottage, with bright blue shutters and a garden full of blooming roses. Benny knocked on the door with his fluffy paw. "Ding-dong!" Grandma Lily opened the door, her warm smile lighting up her face. Her silver hair glowed in the sunlight, and she wore a lovely yellow dress with tiny white daisies. "Benny! Ruby!

“she exclaimed. Benny handed her the letter with a flourish.”

What a lovely surprise!" she exclaimed.

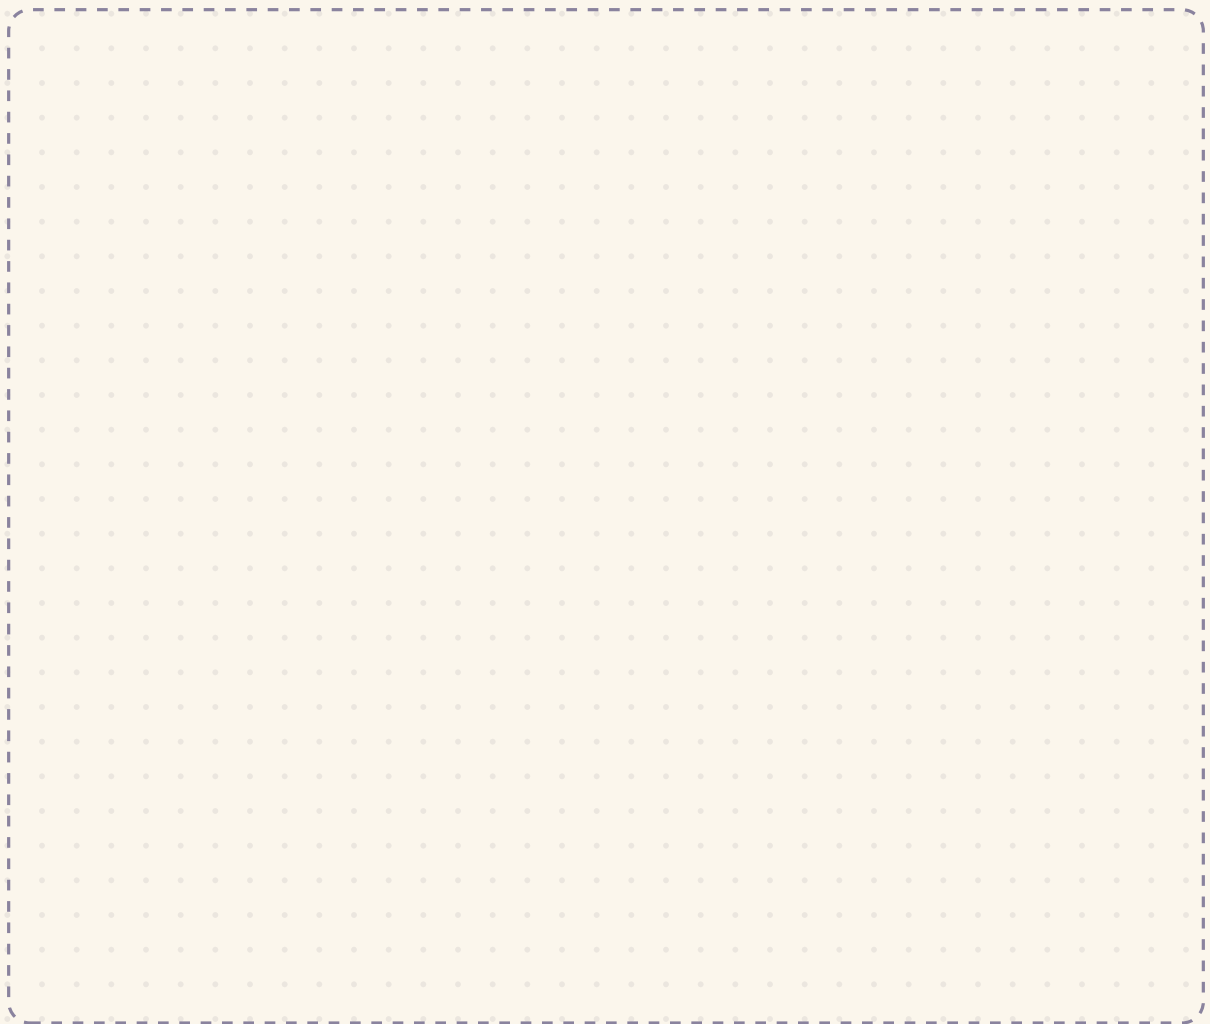

Benny handed her the letter with a flourish. "This is for you, Grandma!" he said. Grandma Lily opened the letter, her eyes twinkling with joy. "Oh, how wonderful! A letter from my friend! Thank you, Benny!" She hugged them both tightly. They all sat down in her sunny garden, sharing stories and treats, making the day bright and full of laughter.

And from that day on, Benny, Ruby, and Grandma Lily shared many more adventures together, always bringing smiles to each other's hearts.

THE END

This story was dreamed up on June 12, 2026.

built with Dreamy

This page is for your own drawing.